

A Life Well Lived
1 Thessalonians 1:1-10

June 3/4, 2017

FOLLOWING THE MESSAGE

#1: A life well lived - _____.

We give thanks to God always for all of you, making mention of you in our prayers

1 Thessalonians 1:2 NASB

#2: Gospel _____ is central to living a life well lived.

In 1 Thessalonians 1:5, the greek word for power is dynamis. Dynamis (dun a mis): means power, strength, and might. The sense of this word is possession of controlling influence.

#3: A life well lived imitates _____ and your spiritual _____ in your affliction.

You also became imitators of us and of the Lord, having received the word in much tribulation with the joy of the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia.

1 Thessalonians 1:6-7 NASB

#4: _____ is essential to a life well lived.

⁹For they themselves report about us what kind of a [d]reception we had [e]with you, and how you turned to God from [f]idols to serve [g]a living and true God,

1 Thessalonians 1:9

“What is an idol? It is anything more important to you than God, anything that absorbs your heart and imagination more than God, anything you seek to give you what only God can give.”
