1. 7:15 False teachers find ears willing to listen mostly among those who are discontent with God's ways (Isaiah 30:9–10).
2. 7:15 The most dangerous characteristic of false teachers is that they claim to speak on God's behalf (Jeremiah 14:14).
3. 7:15 When an enemy is seen for what he is, we are on the alert and are prepared for the assault. When an enemy poses as a friend, our defenses drop.
4. Scripture speaks of three kinds of deceitful teachers:
  - Heretics—openly reject God's Word and teach the opposite of God's truth
  - Apostates—once followed the truth, but have turned away and try to lead others away
  - False teachers (deceivers)—give the appearance of established truth
5. 7:16 There is no need to be deceived; there is always evidence.
6. 7:16 Christians can be taken in by false teachers when they are lazy and careless about the Word of God.
7. 7:16 A maturing believer who has discernment will be able to spot the false teacher (Hebrews 5:13-14).
8. 7:16 The Bible shows three specific evidences of false teachers:
  - Fruit of Doctrine
    - They speak from delusion, not by God's direction (Jeremiah 23:16).
    - Their teaching does not stand up under scrutiny of Scripture's light (Isaiah 8:20).
    - They tell people what they want to hear (2 Timothy 4:3-4).
