

The Church at Her Best-You are Our Joy

1 Thessalonians 2:17-3:5

Joe Testa, College Pastor

March 3 & 4, 2018

1. Paul's heart for these people – we're in the middle of this letter – but you constantly see how much Paul loved people – and especially Christians.
2. A reminder to persevere. He just wants to remind these people that adversity and afflictions are normal, and that we should expect it and persevere through it. Stay the course.
3. A short theology of evil.
